Annual Armed Forces Mass and Flag Blessing
Saint Joseph's Church, South Camden, NJ

The annual Armed Forces Mass honoring active military personnel will take place at St. Joseph's Roman Catholic (Polish) Church at 4:00 PM on Saturday, May 7, 2016.

The names of active service men and women will be read and remembered in prayer during Mass. To have an active service member remembered during Mass, please send the name and branch of the service to: stjhistory@yahoo.com or complete the form below. In addition, all are invited to bring a folded American flag to be blessed during the Mass.

Participants will include Scouts and Scout leaders from the Diocese of Camden. Lunch will be served at 1:00 PM. An official Air Force teddy bear and the book, "Don't forget, God bless our troops" will be raffled during lunch. Proceeds will support the Stand Down of South Jersey's aid to homeless and at-risk veterans. A service project, consisting of preparing care packages for active duty personnel being deployed overseas, will follow lunch. A tour of the church will precede the 4:00 PM Mass.

For more information, please contact Grant Wilinski at 609-965-2614 or grantwilinski@comcast.net. St. Joseph's Church is located at 10th and Mechanic Sts. Camden, NJ. 08104. The church's Webpage can be viewed at: <http://www.stjosephscamdennj.org>
